

We Will Miss You

We will miss you
Through times of trouble,
We will miss you
We will miss the love and understanding that you gave.
We will miss the long hours of deep thoughts we had together.
We will miss you
We will miss the laughter in your voice.
We will miss your smile
But although you're gone, you will never be gone,
For our missing you will always keep you with us.
We will miss you, but we know that where you've gone,
You will be watching over us.
Our love and hearts will always be there for you.
So although we will miss you,
We will always love you.
Missing you, loving you, but never forgetting you...
We Love You....

1965 Jesse Leroy Leary, Jr. 2021

Order of Service

Jesse Leroy Leary, Jr. was born in Boston, MA on January 24, 1965. He was the son of Jesse Leary Sr, of SC and the late Maude Frances Leary of Utica, NY. Jesse attended Madison Park high school, and later worked as a mechanic. Jesse suddenly passed away on March 7, 2021. He was a loving and devoted father and grandfather, brother, uncle and friend.

Jesse was known to many as Uncle Jr. (even if you weren't related). Jesse is survived by two children, Tyrone and Jestina, and his daughter-in-law, Melissa, six grandchildren, Alyssa, Anija, Tyrone Jr., Avonte, Avery and Ayan-Aries. Jesse had six siblings, Eddie Johnson of SC, Brenda Simmons, the late Frances Leary, Sondra Leary, Jaclyn Allen, and J. Timothy Leary all of Boston.

Jesse also left behind a host of nieces, nephews, great- nieces, great-nephews, and a host of aunts and uncles, and also the love of his life, the late Carolyn Hicks.

Growing up Jesse had a passion for fixing cars; he was known as the community mechanic to everyone. Jesse was always a phone call away to his nieces and nephews and close friends. Jesse offered to help almost anybody; if you asked him "everyone was his friend".

If you knew uncle Jr. then you would know when he yelled "shoe" he wasn't talking about the one on your foot, but that he was talking about his nephew Pierre. When uncle Jr. heard someone yell out "Dirty Dirt" he knew it was coming from his sister Brenda.

Jesse also had a special relationship with his sister Sondra, even though they fought like an old married couple. In conversations uncle Jr. would always state that he doesn't know what he would do without his sister. So if you've ever heard him refer to her as an old dog, you know why.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. In the house of my father there are many abodes. Otherwise, I would have told you, because I am going my way to prepare a place for you. Also, if I go my way and prepare a place for you, I am coming again and will receive you home to myself, that where I am you also may be. And where I am going you know the way.
