

IN LOVING MEMORY

LOTTI STOKES

January 30, 1951 - April 18, 2021

"Thus we will always be with the Lord."

- 1 Thessalonians 4:14

Obituary

Lotti Stokes was born in Marks, Mississippi, on January 30th, 1951. As the youngest daughter of Blanchard Roberson and Rev. Walter Stokes, Sr., Lotti spent her adolescent years harvesting crops on her family farm in Mississippi before venturing to Boston, Massachusetts, at the age of 16.

While living in Boston, Lotti acquired professional skills in CAD Operating and Medical Billing, and Coding within her multifaceted career and showcased them at companies that include Fidelity Investments, Raytheon, and Boston Medical Center, where she retired in 2020.

An ever-loving mother and grandmother, Lotti is survived by her children Nicole Stokes, Reginald Stokes, and Ashley Stokes, grandchildren Jaeda Riley, Jordan Riley, Xavier Saintfort, Reginald Stokes, Jr., Nathaniel Stokes, Raphael Stokes, and Natalia Stokes, brothers Casey Kimmons and Walter Stokes and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She is preceded in death by her parents Blanchard Roberson and father Rev. Walter Stokes, Sr., sister Classie Mae Bonds, and brothers William Earl Bonds, and J.D. Jones.

Order of Service

Tuesday, April 27, 2021

Invocation

Bishop William Dickerson

Scripture Reading

Psalm 23 OT

John 14:1-6 NT

Remarks

Family & Friends

Obituary Reading

Jaeda Riley

Musical Selection

Eulogy

Bishop William Dickerson

Closing Remarks & Benediction

*Greater Love Tabernacle Church
101 Nightingale St, Boston, MA 02124*

Place of Rest

*Oak Lawn Cemetery
Roslindale, MA 02131*

Acknowledgements

The Stokes Family would like to thank all of our family and friends for their condolences, love, and support during this time.

We appreciate you.

"Behold, I am with you always."

- Matthew 28:20