They say there is a reason

*They say that time will heal
But neither time nor reason
Will change the way I feel.*

*For no one knows the heartache
That lies behind the smiles
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.*

*But we want to tell you something
So, there won't be any doubt
You're so wonderful to think of
But so hard to be without.*

*We cannot bring the old days back
When we were all together
The family chain is broken again
But our memories live forever*

Love Always, your brother Anthony

Transforming Pain and Anger Into Power and Action
The Peace Institute serves as a center of healing, teaching and learning for families & communities dealing with murder, trauma, grief and loss. Our Survivors Outreach Services are

Obituary

Arteata (aka Altia or Lil Tia) Nicole Huguley was born in Boston Massachusetts to Gloria Huguley on August 10th, 1981. Tia was the oldest child of seven siblings; Michael, Eric, Antionette, Anthony, Kalia and her late little sister Shakeda Price who preceded her in death. Tia departed this life on May 16th, 2022.

Tia lived in Washington DC as child and spent time with her Grandmother and family. She then relocated back to Boston with her mother where she attended Boston Public Schools. Tia graduated Curtis Tufts High School of Medford MA in 2000. Tia then continued her education at the Salter School in Malden where she completed the nursing program.

Tia was a loving, caring individual. She was very creative and artistic. Tia enjoyed doing hair, she was an amazing artist and liked to write poems and draw. Tia was a wonderful daughter, sister, mother, aunt and friend who touched the lives of all those she encountered. Tia was funny, Tia was bright, most of all Tia didn't take no mess from anyone.

Tia leaves behind her six beautiful children Ijanaya Nicole Precious, Danasia De'Symone, Ebony Marion, Jaykob Xavier, Lutiana Shakeda and Zion. Her mother Gloria Huguley, her beloved aunts Lisa Ann Huguley, Dorothy Johnson, Patricia Allen, and Uncle James Allen Huguley. Tia also leaves behind her Great Aunts of Washington DC Brenda Venable, Joyce Ann Venable, and Cheryl Venable. Tia had a huge host of cousins and friends that all loved her so dearly from both DC and Boston.

Tia will be so missed and always held in all our hearts.
