

Acknowledgements

*The Family gratefully recognizes the many kind and beautiful expressions of sympathy and love shown through ur actions and words during our time of bereavement.
We are comforted by knowing that you care.*

Pall Bearers

*Kwame Adams
Dave Pight
Titus Adams
Titus DiRienzo
John Howard
Joseph Pight*

Interment

*Fairview Cemetery
45 Fairview Ave, Boston, MA 02136*

Funeral Arrangements

*Riley Antoine Funeral Home
171 Humboldt Ave • Dorchester, MA 02121
Phone: 617-427-5625*

Design & printing by: Cherished Keepsakes. © 2022. All rights reserved.
www.CherishedKeepsakes.com. Phone: 617-971-8590

In Loving Memory

APRIL 6, 1950 – JUNE 27, 2022

Carolyn Pight

FRIDAY, JULY 8, 2022

VIEWING—6PM • FUNERAL SERVICE—7PM

Morning Star Baptist Church

1257 Blue Hill Avenue
Mattapan, MA 02126

Bishop John M. Borders, III, Senior Pastor

ORDER OF SERVICE

Invocation

Scriptures:

Old Testament—Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

New Testament—John 14:1-3

Prayer of Comfort

Musical Selection

Remarks (2 minutes-each person)

Acknowledgements

Scripture—Psalm 23

Obituary

Musical Selection

Eulogy

Recessional

Carolyn "Cal" Pight was born in Florence, South Carolina to Lenzie Adams and Ella-Mae Pight on April 6, 1950. Carolyn was the first born of the fraternal twin pair, including Calvin "Pee-wee" Pight. She was 5th born of 8 children but would only have one of her own- her loving daughter, Lakiesha Princess Pight.

From a young age, Cal had a personality that could light up a room. She always had a joke and was ready to laugh. She attended Florence Public Schools and graduated from Wilson High School in May of 1968. She enjoyed sports, music, and television. As a student she enjoyed going to her school's football games and their Christmas Parades. She was very popular in school and had many friends, some she maintained after moving to Boston.

In 1973 Cal moved to Boston with her sister Jackie, in search of a fresh start. The added benefit of joining her other siblings Gwendolyn, Broach, and Bannie made acclimating to a new city easier. In November of 1980 Cal's life would change forever as she welcomed her daughter Lakiesha into the world. The love they shared propelled her forward and gave her life new purpose.

Cal worked at Robell's Houseware Departments in Dudley Square for many years. She helped her niece, Meka, get her first job at the same store she worked at. She would work at Robell's until retiring in 1991.

Cal was a woman of many talents who loved her family and valued education. The lessons she has instilled are countless and the hours that she dedicated to those she loved will forever be appreciated. Beyond raising Lakiesha, she supported the upbringing of her nieces and nephews.

Cal enjoyed comedies, horror films, soap operas, cooking shows and food. You knew not to call her between 12:30 PM and 2:00 PM unless it was an emergency because her stories were on. Every Sunday she played Shirley Caesar and enjoyed watching her sermons on YouTube.

Cal was a strong woman who overcame much adversity. She lived a life full of excitement, love, and laughter where she was able to impact multiple generations of the family. Known to keep a secret, her conversations will be missed.

Carolyn is preceded in death by her parents, Lenzie Adams and Ella-Mae Pight, sister Gwendolyn I. Pight, Brothers Calvin "Pee Wee" Pight, Arthur "Broach" Pight, Jackie "Teenie" Adams, Billy Pight, nephew John Pight, and niece Brenda Pight.

Carolyn is survived by her daughter Lakiesha Pight, Sister Jacqueline Adams-Garshong (Asford Garshong), Brother Bannie Pight, Nieces and Nephews Malaika Adams, Dave Pight, Titus Adams, Kwame Adams, Jhamicha Howard, Jhameia Howard, John Howard, Taiyanna Adams, Kenyatta Adams, Titus DiRienzo, Joseph Pight, Patrice Pight, May Pight, Sharon Triplet, and a host of other family and loved ones.

