

Sanctum

I built a tiny garden
In a corner of my heart
I kept it just for lovely things
And bade all else depart
And ever was there music
And flowers blossomed fair;
And never was it perfect
Until you entered there.

Love you always!

Obituary

Lucille N. Harrison was born to Carla Stokes and Dwayne Harrison on July 22, 1987; she later became the eldest to six siblings. Lucille graduated from Madison Park High School in 2004. She loved unconditionally and was very thoughtful to those she cherished, especially her four children. Lucille had the charisma and smile thought would brighten a room.

Before Lucille's unexpected passing at the young age of 35, she developed a relationship with the Lord. She was determined to maintain a strong relationship with the Lord by attending Sunday school, attending Sunday service and singing in the choir.

Lucille is survived by her parents, Carla Stokes and Dwayne Harrison, and Godfather, Charles Bernie, all of Boston, Mass.; four children: Alexis Stokes, Michelle Jenkins, Brian Jenkins, and Dandre Devaughn; four brothers: Anthony Stokes, Tyrone Gilbert, Jimmie Stokes, and Antonio Stokes; two sisters: Irena Stokes and Doreen Grossett; two beloved aunts: Patricia Stokes and Brenda Stokes; an uncle: Robert Stokes; two great aunts: Patricia Stokes and Shirley Stokes of Georgia; two great uncles: Leonard Stokes and JT; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
