

WHEN I LOST YOU

I wish I could see you one more time,
 Come walking through the door...
 But I know that is impossible,
 I will hear your voice no more.
 I know you can feel my tears
 And you don't want me to cry,
 Yet my heart is broken because
 I can't understand why someone
 So precious had to die.
 I pray that God will give me strength
 And somehow get me through...
 As I struggle with the heartache
 That came When I Lost You.
Your loving wife DeQuandria Chady

Acknowledgments

Words of thanks seem so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May God bless you richly for blessing us.

Going Home Service for

1971 Glaubert "Goober" Chady 2022

Glaubert "Goober" Chady, dedicated husband, father of two, son, brother, and friend of many transitioned unexpectedly on Thursday, October 27, 2022 at the age of 51 in Boston, Massachusetts.

Glaubert was born on March 4, 1971 in Petit Goave, Haiti to Mr. Joseph Chady and the late Ms. Marie Lossa Jean Jell. Glaubert attended the Lycee Phillippe Jules High School where he graduated in 1990.

In 1996, Glaubert relocated from Haiti to the United States where he began working for Farmers Market until 2000. Then he was employed at Hilton Hotel at Logan Airport as a cook. During the peak of his life, Glaubert was employed at The Four Seasons Hotel for over 18 years and was laid off due to the 2020 Pandemic. Recovering from that, he was employed with The Embassy Suites Hotel until his untimely passing.

In 1998 while working and living in Massachusetts, Glaubert met and fell in love with DeQuandria Frazier. Through this love, they shared much and it became apparent that they were inseparable, and from this love they welcomed two beautiful children, Xavier and Zaniyah. After being friends for over twenty-four years, on Friday, September 9, 2021 they became husband and wife. Although married for a short time, they were inseparable for 24 years, meeting each other at such a young age and still in love.

Glaubert was a quiet man but loved to joke. He enjoyed shopping and cooking. One of his favorite foods to cook was Legume, rice and beans. Although he enjoyed shopping and cooking, there was something he truly enjoyed more than anything, and that was his family. The time shared with his only daughter, Zaniyah was priceless. His son Xavier never wanted to leave his father's side always wanted to be in his presence. The two would sit around and watch football and basketball all day. Glaubert and his brother, Venel were best friend and had a bond that could not be broken. The love between these two was rare. They were always there for one another. And then, of course his lovely wife.

Glaubert is preceded in death by his mother, Marie Lossa Jean Jell and his brother Godstal Chady.

The life and memory of Glaubert shall long be remembered by his loving wife and best friend DeQuandria Chady, his two beautiful children, Xavier and Zaniyah Chady, his father, Joseph Chady of Mattapan, MA, his Mother-in-law, Brenda Frazier, Roxbury, MA. His brother Venel Chady, Mattapan, MA. Brother-in-laws Rashun Frazier, Antonio Frazier, Dominique Wardsworth, Demetrius Wardsworth all of Boston, MA., Donnie Frazier and Tracy Frazier of Wilkesboro, NC., Terrance Frazier (Renee) of Framingham, MA., Troy Frazier (Ida) of Jonesboro, GA., Sister in law, Michele (Derrick) Kay of Wellesley, MA; Two god children Majesty Jackson and Cornelius Scott Davis of Boston, MA. A host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

Look For Me in Rainbows

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.

In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,

Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.

In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,

Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever; the day will come and then

My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.

Every waking moment, and all your whole life through

Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,

And I'll be there with you.

Love always your children, Xavier & Zaniyah Chady
