

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

IN LOVING MEMORY

Sean Eric Lee Myers was a man that overcame many obstacles. He was born in Boston, MA on December 9, 1968.

Sean worked in many restaurants in the Boston Ma and North Shore areas. Sean loved his culinary craft, Sean loved to try different things and explore different cultures. He implemented this in his culinary work.

Sean loved his family, he was generous and if he saw a person in need he would do whatever was necessary to assist that person. Sean was a giving person. Sean believed in helping people whenever possible. He had a heart of gold and loved humor and a good laugh.

Sean had an accidental fall during the Covid 19 pandemic and endured paralysis as a result of that fall. Sean battled and made a strong comeback after being hospitalized for over a year. Sean endured other health complications over the years, but fought daily to live. Sean had an influence on most people he encountered in his life. That smile of his won over many he encountered. Sean loved people.

Sean was preceded in death by his parents, Rebecca McDaniel -Myers and Earthen Thames Sr. and also his two brothers Earthen Jr. and Irving

Sean is survived by his two daughters Jasmine and Trinity and also his 2 grandchildren Destiny and Peter, siblings, Deborah, Purdy, Prentice, Christopher, Morris, Andre, Yvette, Nichelle, Renda, and Chantel also a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
